

Fundraiser Guidelines

Thank you for volunteering to support SAFEHOME by hosting a fundraiser (financial or in-kind) through a planned event, promotion, sale or donation drive. Any individual or organization (outside of SAFEHOME) that hosts an event, promotion, sale or donation drive on behalf of SAFEHOME is defined as a "third-party fundraiser" in this document.

In order to enhance the success of third party events while protecting SAFEHOME's brand, donors and sponsors, the following policies must be observed.

Guidelines

1. Fundraisers which benefit SAFEHOME must reflect positively on our mission. SAFEHOME reserves the right to decline any fundraising proposal that is not in line with our mission.
2. The third-party fundraiser is responsible for all vendor agreements, contracts, insurance and necessary permits for the event. SAFEHOME will not assume any legal or financial liability for a third-party event.
3. SAFEHOME reserves the right to approve any co-beneficiaries.
4. SAFEHOME, any of its Board Members, or staff reserves the right to cancel the event at any time. SAFEHOME will incur no liability for any such cancellation.
5. Third-party fundraising events must be fully executed by the third-party fundraiser(s). SAFEHOME staff is available to provide fundraising coaching and recommendations during your planning process. However, due to limited staff resources, SAFEHOME staff cannot plan any third party fundraising events. SAFEHOME will do it's best to promote the event when and where appropriate.
6. Third-party fundraising events must be financially self-sustaining without contribution or financial risk from SAFEHOME. SAFEHOME will only accept the net proceeds from a third-party fundraising event. All third-party fundraising event expenses are the responsibility of the third-party fundraiser and must be paid before the proceeds are given to SAFEHOME. Refunds or reimbursements will not be available after the donation made is SAFEHOME.
7. Third-party fundraisers must fully and truthfully state the portion of the proceeds which will be donated to SAFEHOME in all advertising, promotions and in all contact with donors, sponsors and participants.
